

9. Holmview,

Omagh.

Dec. 14.

7.50 p.m.

Darling Frank,

Aileen tells me that the train - last train - to Omagh on all nights except Sunday is 6.50 p.m. You said on the phone 7.35. & I was worried in case you would arrive at the S.N.R. and get another horrible disappointment. Besides I am glad of the opportunity of writing again & telling I love you more than anyone or anything on earth. You must know this so well - but if you are like me you cannot hear it often enough.

I called to pay my dentist bill & found my "Kortimer" abed with 'flu. I did not forget Ma to-day. I shall never forget your dear dead. They have given us all the happiness we have experienced these past few weeks & I know there is much more in store for us. Your train is due at 9.25. I am back again wishing time away.

All my love, darling

Forever your own Aileen.
